Description

This home is unlike any other in West Vancouver. An early contemporary design, it is truly unique in every way. The main floor features kitchen, living and dining rooms all opening to the outdoor patio and pool. The upper floor features 3 bedrooms including large master/ensuite with balcony opening to the western skyline and view of Eagle Harbour. The home was originally designed and built by West Vancouver architect Barry McLeod and is a perfect complement to this 9,000+ sq ft lot.
